Prolonged suspension in a full-body fall arrest harness can be fatal. It is important to exercise the legs by pushing against the tree or doing other forms of continuous leg exercises to avoid blood pooling while being suspended. Varying degrees of physical fitness may require different plans for self-recovery/escape the effects of prolonged suspension. Have a personal plan and practice it in the presence of a responsible adult before leaving the ground. No one escape/rescue plan will work for every hunter, on every tree, in every circumstance. Only you can determine the best self-recovery/escape plan for your hunting situation before leaving the ground. There is time to make a correct decision on what action to take if a fall occurs while wearing a full-body fall arrest harness. It is important to remember, DO NOT PANIC. Remain calm and implement your practiced rescue, relief and recovery plan. Hunt from the ground when a self-recovery/escape ability is absent. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR CLIMBING TREESTAND USAGE

DANGER DANGER! You must consider the gradual taper of the tree trunk it as grows up from the ground. As you climb, you will find it necessary to adjust the tree belt to accommodate this gradual narrowing. Make certain to make these adjustments as you climb or descend the tree. Platform level adjustments shall not be made anywhere except at ground-level (except for those special cases of products designed and intended to be safely adjusted in accordance with manufacturer's instructions).

DANGER DANGER! Two-piece climbing treestands must have a tether connecting the seat platform and the standing platform. It must be secure and at the proper length recommended by the manufacturer. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions.

⚠️ WARNING! While ascending or descending, adjustments to the harness tether and tree belt must be made. Always maintain the least amount of slack in the tree belt/lanyard. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

DANGER DANGER! You must familiarize yourself with the use of climbers by practicing at ground-level before using it at heights above ground-level. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR NON-CLIMBING (HANG-ON OR LOCK-ON STYLE) TREESTANDS

⚠️ WARNING! You must use the lineman's belt when installing hang-on or lock-on treestands to stabilize yourself. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

DANGER DANGER! Correct tightening and adjustments of chains, cables, straps, etc. are critical to stable hang-on or lock-on treestand installation. All treestand contact points must be in contact with the tree before you step onto your stand. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific adjustment instructions.

DANGER DANGER! Practice the attachment of hang-on or lock-on treestands at ground-level before using in a hunting environment. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions.

DANGER DANGER! Never leave a treestand in a tree for more than two weeks as weather and/or animals could cause damage. Tree growth can also stress and damage straps and buckles. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions.

DANGER DANGER! Climbing aids (e.g., stick ladders, sectional ladders, steps, etc.) must extend above the treestand standing platform (at least 24") to allow the user to step down onto the platform. Never step up to your stand from a climbing aid. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions.

⚠️ WARNING! Use a haul line to raise and lower the treestand. Never climb with anything on your back. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR LADDERSTAND USAGE

⚠️ WARNING! The means to secure and stabilize the treestand/ladderstand must be attached before climbing to the standing/seating platform. Refer to your treestand/ladderstand Instruction Manual for specific instructions. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! Check every ladder section connection each time prior to beginning to climb the stand. If ladder sections are separating, do not use the stand. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! Check the ground under the stand to make sure it is firm and level. Sloping ground or an uneven surface(s) (e.g., one side on a rock) can cause your ladder to tilt or shift off the tree as you climb. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! Maintain 3-points of contact when climbing a ladder treestand. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! Always lean forward as you climb and attach your Muddy® full-body fall arrest harness to the tree before securing the platform to the tree and stepping onto the platform. Refer to your treestand Instruction Manual for specific instructions. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! BEFORE each use, make sure that no damage has occurred to hardware and that the webbing is not cut or frayed. Keep webbing from coming into contact with any sharp edges. DO NOT USE THIS PRODUCT IF ANY DAMAGE IS SUSPECTED. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! This full-body fall arrest harness has been designed to be used only as a safety device for hunting from elevated treestands and ladders. Any other use is prohibited. DO NOT use this, or any other Muddy® product(s) to climb utility poles, telephone poles, structural columns or any other man-made structures. Never use this or any other product(s) around power generation (e.g., transformers, generators, substations, etc.) and/or power transmission equipment. Never use a treestand on a dead, leaning, diseased or loose barked tree. NEVER USE A TREE BRANCH, OR ANY PORTION OF A TREE, TO SUPPORT ANY PORTION OF YOUR WEIGHT OR AS A HAND HOLD. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! NEVER hunt out of a treestand at heights at which you are not completely comfortable. Depending upon the tree and hunting conditions, choose the minimum height that allows for safe, effective hunting. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! Always wear the appropriate foot wear when using a treestand. A good non-slip safety boot is important for your safety. Be especially careful that boot laces do not get hooked on the tree stand or climbing aids (tuck shoelaces into boots). Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

MSH100 • THE MAGNUM HARNESS INSTRUCTIONS

⚠️ WARNING! Before using this full-body fall arrest harness in the field, it is important to become familiar with the setup and use at ground-level to ensure a proper assembly in the field. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠️ WARNING! You must store your full-body fall arrest harness out of direct sunlight and out of any other harsh environmental condition(s) that may adversely affect its performance. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

STEP 1. Identify the main parts of the full-body fall arrest harness (FIG. 1).

STEP 2. To don (put on) your full-body fall arrest harness, with the upper torso strap and quick release leg strap buckles disengaged, slip one arm through an arm hole in the full-body fall arrest harness. Repeat this step for the other arm as shown in Figure 2.

STEP 3. With the full-body fall arrest harness slipped on, adjust the shoulder strap buckles to a comfortable fit and engage the snap buckle on the upper torso strap as shown in Figure 3. Tighten strap comfortably snug by pulling on the tag end (i.e., loose end) of the strap as shown in Figure 3.

STEP 4. Slip each leg strap between your legs and engage the quick release buckles as shown in Figure 4. Pull the tag end (i.e., loose end) of the strap to tighten the legs straps comfortably snug as shown in Figure 4.

⚠️ WARNING! It is very important to complete Step 4. Improperly securing buckle may cause full-body fall arrest harness failure, resulting in serious injury or death!

READ THIS MANUAL IN ITS ENTIRETY PRIOR TO USING THIS PRODUCT.

ATTENTION!! WHEN YOU SEE A "⚠ WARNING!" BE SURE TO HEED THE MESSAGE! THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THESE MESSAGES CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE!!

CLIMBING BELT USAGE

NOTE: Use your climbing belt when installing or removing hang-on or lock-on style treestands and their climbing aids (e.g., stick ladders, sectional ladders, steps, etc.) as directed by the Instruction Manual. It is important to remember to stay connected to the tree trunk with your climbing belt until you have safely secured your harness tether and tree belt to the tree trunk. Once you have secured your tree belt and harness tether and adjusted their length, only then can you safely disconnect your climbing belt and step down onto the standing platform portion of your treestand.

STEP 5. If necessary to use a climbing belt for the field installation of your treestand (as determined by your treestand manufacturer's instruction manual), feed the climbing belt through one of the waist loops and wrap the tag end (i.e., loose end) around the tree. Next, feed the opposite end through the opposite waist loop (as shown in Figure 5) and secure in accordance with Figure 5A.

NOTE: AS YOU ASCEND OR DESCEND THE TREE, YOU MUST MOVE THE CLIMBING BELT UP OR DOWN THE TREE (DEPENDING ON CLIMBING DIRECTION) TO SUPPORT YOUR WEIGHT SAFELY.

FIG 5A

STEP 6. Once you have reached your desired height, insert the tree belt through the loop of the tether (Fig. 6). Then, carefully wrap the tree belt around the tree at a height that allows just enough slack for you to sit comfortably in your stand. Keeping the tether as short as possible limits the distance you will travel in case of a fall.

FIG 6

STEP 7. To secure the tree belt, insert the free end up through the slot in the buckle closest to opposite end of the tree belt, then cross over the sliding mechanism and back down through opposite slot (Fig.7).

FIG 7

STEP 8. Pull on tree belt to secure and test to make sure sliding mechanism engages, creating secure tree belt placement (Fig. 8).

STEPS TO FOLLOW IF A FALL WAS TO OCCUR

Although no one plans to fall from their treestand, falls can and do occur without warning. It is important to become familiar with the guidelines below and practice your recovery plan on ground-level. Failure to read, understand, and follow these steps may result in serious injury or death!

⚠ WARNING! There is time to make a correct decision on what action to take if a fall occurs while wearing a full-body fall arrest harness. It is important NOT TO PANIC! Remain calm and implement your practiced rescue, relief and recovery plan. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

⚠ WARNING! A suspension relief device must be on your person and readily accessible while using a full-body fall arrest harness. These devices will allow you to relieve the load on the lower extremities if suspended in a full-body fall arrest harness and help maintain circulation in the legs and mitigate suspension trauma (blood pooling) or allow descent to the ground. Follow all instructions below regarding the provided SRD (Suspension Relief Device) and NEVER remove it from your full-body fall arrest harness. Failure to follow full-body fall arrest harness instructions could result in not being able to return to the stand and being suspended in a full-body fall arrest harness after a fall. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

STEP 1. After a fall, take a moment to catch your breath and stay calm. DO NOT PANIC.

STEP 2. Locate the SRD strap on the front side of your full-body fall arrest harness, housed in a bag (see FIG. 1 on page 5). You may place the SRD strap anywhere on your harness that allows easy access. Remove the SRD strap from the storage bag. There are two ends; one end has a sewn in loop, while the other end has nothing (non-loop end) (FIG. 9).

STEP 3. Take the looped end of the SRD strap and thread it through the waist loop on the harness. Next, thread the non-loop end of the SRD strap through the looped end and pull tight (FIG. 10). One end of the SRD strap shall now be attached to the waist loop on the harness.

STEP 4. While holding the loose end (non-loop end) of the SRD strap let the rest of the strap fall forming a loop just above ankle height. (FIG. 11).

STEP 5. Now take the loose end (non-loop end) of the SRD strap you were holding and thread it through the opposite waist loop on your full-body fall arrest harness. (FIG. 12).

READ THIS MANUAL IN ITS ENTIRETY PRIOR TO USING THIS PRODUCT.

ATTENTION!! WHEN YOU SEE A "⚠ WARNING!" BE SURE TO HEED THE MESSAGE!
THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THESE MESSAGES CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE!!

STEP 6. Fasten the loose end (non-loop end) of the SRD strap by tying a double-overhand knot (FIG. 13A & 13B).

STEP 9. Use your personal locating device or cell phone to call for help.

NOTE: Several optional products/systems are available that offer self-recovery or self extraction from a fall when suspended in a full-body fall arrest harness. Some systems automatically descend the user while others allow user control. One of these products/systems can be considered for use as an additional safety precaution against prolonged suspension and suspension trauma. Be sure to follow the manufacturers' directions on the safe use of these products/systems.

STEP 7. Adjust the SRD strap so that you are able to step into the loop and then stand up (even slightly) to relieve the pressure on your lower extremities (FIG. 14). The loop size can be adjusted by untying the SRD strap loose end (non-loop end), adjusting the length, then retie the loose end (non-loop end) again (see STEP 5).

STEP 8. If you are able to reach your treestand, ladder or climbing system, use it to get back into your secured treestand and then carefully climb down to ground-level. If you are not able to reach your stand, remain calm and continue to stand in the SRD loop until help arrives (FIG. 14).

CLIMBING TREESTAND USAGE

You must wear your Muddy® full-body fall arrest harness at all times when using a climbing stand. This includes staying connected to the tree at all times while ascending or descending the tree. When using your Muddy® full-body fall arrest harness with a climbing stand you must remember to move the tree belt up and down the tree each time you ascend or descend the tree. To do this, simply loosen the tree belt and slide it either upward or downward (as appropriate for the direction you are climbing). Remember, keep the slack in the harness tether to a minimum as you ascend or descend.

⚠ WARNING! Installing your Muddy® full-body fall arrest harness tether and tree belt in a manner other than outlined here puts you at risk of bodily harm. Failure to follow these instructions may result in serious injury or death!

STEP 1: Prior to stepping onto your climber platform, attach the tree belt around the tree trunk at or above eye level (FIG. 1).

STEP 2: As you climb, slide your tree belt up as shown in Figure 2. Remember, keep the least amount of slack in the assembly as possible. A tight harness tether greatly reduces the distance you can travel shall you experience a fall while climbing. When descending, simply reverse this step.
